1. NASR REPORTEDLY AIMS AT ASSASSINATION OF KING HUSSAIN

[redacted] President Nasr has stated that he intends to bring about the assassination of King Hussain of Jordan, [redacted]

Nasr reportedly said that on 29 August he will launch a propaganda campaign so violent that it will inspire some Palestinian refugee to make the assassination attempt. Nasr cited an alleged public statement by Hussain that the Egyptian President is "the number-one Communist in the Middle East" as justification for this move.

Comment

Several reports have indicated Nasr's desire to be rid of the Jordanian King since the failure of the Egyptian-backed, antimonarchical coup attempted in Amman last April. The current trials of those involved in the coup have provided material for vigorous press and radio attacks against Hussain.

2. JAPANESE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR ASWAN DAM

Reference:

An official of the Japanese embassy in Cairo has confirmed that Japan is interested in supplying technical assistance and equipment for the Aswan high dam. Egyptian President Nasr has told the Japanese that he would pursue the matter through diplomatic channels.

Economic Planning Board director Ichiro Kono stated on 31 July that the Japanese government is prepared to extend technical assistance to Egypt for construction of the dam, but added that a shortage of foreign currency reserves precludes further participation.

3. KISHI'S PLANNED POLICIES OUTLINED

Reference:

The government of Japanese Prime Minister Kishi will soon initiate a broad domestic and foreign program to provide a more substantial basis for the continuation of conservative rule and to place Japan in firmer alignment with the free world, according to Ambassador MacArthur.

Kishi's "economic diplomacy" will seek early settlement of remaining reparations obligations, co-operative development of Southeast Asia, and increased exports including a gradual expansion of trade with Communist China.

Domestically, a greater effort will be made to fulfill the five-year plan for defense build-up, and the development of atomic power for commercial use will be accelerated. The projected labor program will be designed to undercut leftist labor strength which forms the basis of Socialist Party support.

In foreign affairs, the Kishi government is counting on the American-Japanese intergovernment committee to review the security treaty and on obtaining a Security Council seat at the United Nations General Assembly session this fall.

4. REBEL ACTIVITY IN CUBA PROMPTS SUSPENSION OF CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEES

Comment on:

Cuban President Fulgencio Batista suspended constitutional guarantees on 1 August after a general strike paralyzed economic activity in Santiago de Cuba, the island's second largest city and center of opposition activity in rebel-infested Oriente Province, and fighting between government troops and the forces of rebel leader Fidel Castro Ruiz broke out in the Sierra Maestra. The rebels reportedly attacked and burned a rural guard headquarters and an army barracks and dynamited several bridges.

This is the fourth time since Fidel Castro landed on the southern coast of Oriente Province last November that the government has suspended constitutional guarantees in an unsuccessful effort to curtail terrorism and opposition activity.

5. SOVIET-INSPIRED ALBANIAN-YUGOSLAV NEGOTIATIONS BEGUN

French Leg
Tirana-Paris
23, 27 July 57
TOP SECRET EIDER

Negotiations to settle Yugoslav-Albanian differences began simultaneously in Belgrade and Tirana on 23 July that the talks, concerning settlement of questions "coming solely within the internal competence of the two states," were begun as the result of a Soviet suggestion.

French official on 27 July stated that the Tirana discussions were continuing in a "friendly atmosphere" and that secondary questions such as resumption of cultural exchanges had been quickly settled. No major problems had been broached, however, because the participants seemed to be awaiting the return of Albanian party boss Hoxha from Moscow.

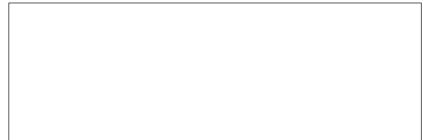

Comment Although some improvement of governmental relations may result from the current talks, deep-rooted mutual distrust will continue. The Yugoslavs have claimed that even at the height of the Yugoslav-Soviet bloc rapprochement, Albania continued to refuse to develop any real accord with Belgrade.

6. LEADER OF WEST GERMAN DELEGATION TO MOSCOW RECALLED AS TALKS HIT SNAG

Comment on: [Redacted]

[Redacted] The West German embassy in Moscow has doubts about the future of the Soviet-initiated trade and repatriation talks because of the tough line taken by the Soviet negotiators. Nevertheless, the obvious propaganda value that would accrue to the USSR from expanded trade and cultural relationships with West Germany will probably lead the USSR to relax its position and offer to negotiate repatriation on the basis of individual cases.

The West Germans have made a trade agreement conditional on a repatriation agreement, but at the second meeting the head of the Soviet delegation said there was no point in further discussion of repatriation. As a result, Ambassador Lahr, leader of the German delegation, was recalled to Bonn on 31 July for consultation with Foreign Minister Brentano and other Foreign Ministry officials. During his absence trade talks are suspended.

Watch Report 365, 1 August 1957
of the Intelligence Advisory Committee

Conclusions on Indications of Hostilities

On the basis of findings by its Watch Committee, the Intelligence Advisory Committee concludes that:

- A. No Sino-Soviet bloc country intends to initiate hostilities against the continental US or its possessions in the immediate future.
- B. No Sino-Soviet bloc country intends to initiate hostilities against US forces abroad, US allies, or areas peripheral to the orbit in the immediate future.
- C. Early deliberate initiation of hostilities by Israel or the Arab states is not probable. Although tensions continue between the Arab states and among certain Arab states themselves, these are not likely to lead to serious conflict in the immediate future.
